

Sunday School Classes for 2010-2011

Adult Classes

Class	Location	Facilitator	Description
The Present Word 	M109	Dale Stephens & Paul Ebel	Join us as we explore the Present Word – many of our students help lead the class, so join us for great discussions and fellowship!
Senior Adults 	Library	Steve Stine & Joan Schrenk	Join us in the Library as we explore lessons from David C. Cook's Reformed Adult Study. Our material is biblically based; discussion oriented; and relevant to our daily lives. Come be a part of our faith journey.
Bethel Class 	F203	Barb Johnson Tom Pons	The Bethel Series seeks to address these questions with a unique overview approach of the Old and New Testaments. The student is immersed in the Bible and thereby establishes a biblical knowledge base. In the process of the study, the student lifts from the pages of Scripture the wonderful story of God moving through history and showing us the plan of salvation. The class will be open for new students sometime in 2011.
Lectio Class 	M110	Rev. Christopher Crotwell	This class will focus on the scripture readings that will be featured in the following week's worship service. Conversation and questions are encouraged as they become a part of Christopher's sermon preparation. This class will also devote time to the spiritual practice of lectio divina. This simple practice of "closely" reading a text together (usually a Psalm) is quickly learned by class participants. This practice makes it easier for participants to make connections between their life and the scriptures.
The View: Yours, Mine, and God's 	M114 Fellowship Hall	Missy & Andy Byrne	Join us for a casual, conversation-filled class! We'll be using various resources to spark our discussion group with the leader acting as facilitator. We will be utilizing Revelation as well as other Bible areas to engage in our learning.
